From the desk of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor

Prof. Ranjana Jha
Vice Chancellor, IGDTUW

Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women (IGDTUW) stands as a beacon of excellence and empowerment in the realm of higher education. As India's first women's engineering college established in 1998 and now a NAAC A+ accredited university, IGDTUW has consistently been at the forefront of nurturing talent, leadership, and innovation among women.

As the Vice-Chancellor of this esteemed institution, I extend a warm welcome to all ambitious young women who aspire to make a mark in the dynamic world of business and management. The world needs bold thinkers and ethical leaders more than ever. At IGDTUW, we believe in a holistic approach to education- where academic rigour meets innovation, and values meet vision. Whether in engineering, management, architecture, or applied sciences our programs are designed to equip students with the skills and mindset required to thrive in a fast-evolving world. We take pride in our strong industry linkages, global collaborations, vibrant research culture, and inclusive campus life that foster both personal and professional growth.

The Department of Management, IGDTUW offers specializations in promising areas such as Finance, Human Resource Management, Marketing Management, Operations & Supply Chain Management, Business Analytics, and allowing you to tailor your learning to your specific career aspirations. Remember, "The best way to predict the future is to create it."

IGDTUW programs empowers you to be the architects of your own successful future. Each program is meticulously designed to equip you with the essential knowledge, skills, and strategic thinking required to excel in today's competitive global landscape.

As the ancient wisdom states, "उद्यमेन हि सिध्यन्ति कार्याणि न मनोरथैः"- Efforts lead to the accomplishment of tasks, not mere wishing. At IGDTUW, we encourage our students to be bold in their ambitions and relentless in their efforts.

A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step. Taking the step to apply at IGDTUW is the beginning of your transformative leadership journey.

I encourage you to explore the opportunities that the IGDTUW offers.

From the desk of the Head of Department

IGDTUW Incubation Centre "Anveshan Foundation – TBI"

Anveshan Foundation – Technology Business Incubator (TBI) is a Section 8 company promoted by IGDTUW in 2016 to foster a vibrant entrepreneurial ecosystem among women. Supported by the Government of NCT of Delhi and the Department of Science and Technology (DST), Government of India, Anveshan serves as a Host Institute under the DC-MSME's innovative scheme, empowering women-led startups through structured incubation and funding support.

Anveshan is helping entrepreneurs and start-ups in:

Pre-incubation, Incubation, Acceleration, Post-incubation, and Virtual Incubation.

In the pre-incubation phase, budding entrepreneurs receive training in idea validation, PoC, prototyping, IPR, pitching, business planning, and presentation skills. A dynamic Entrepreneurship Cell (E-Cell), run by students, promotes peer-led innovation on campus.

Anveshan has successfully supported 51 women-led startups, providing infrastructure, seed funding (up to ₹20 lakhs), business consultancy, and incorporation assistance. Startups benefit from a fully equipped, air-conditioned office space with ICT support and mentoring in technical, strategic, and business domains.

In collaboration with CISCO and NASSCOM Foundation, Anveshan hosts the thingQbator IoT & Robotics Lab, a ₹60 lakh CSR initiative that has benefited over 300 students through four innovation cohorts. Additionally, Anveshan partnered with GiZ India under a ₹27.5 lakh project to strengthen incubation for women entrepreneurs—conducting mentorships, workshops, boot camps, demo days, and reaching over 5,000 beneficiaries nationwide.

The foundation regularly conducts internships, workshops, and certificate programs in:

- Startup & Entrepreneurship Management
- Innovation & Venture Development
- Digital Marketing
- Python Programming
- Family Business & Entreprenureship

Through these initiatives, Anveshan is cultivating the next generation of confident, tech-driven, and socially responsible women entrepreneurs.

Rekhi Centre of Excellence for Science of Happiness

The Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women (IGDTUW) has set up the Rekhi Centre of Excellence for the Science of Happiness in collaboration with the Rekhi Foundation. A Memorandum of Understanding was ceremoniously signed on April 1st, 2022, by Dr. Amita Dev, former Vice Chancellor of IGDTUW, and Dr. Satinder S Rekhi, Founder of Rekhi Foundation for Happiness. The centre is dedicated to fostering meaningful lives, happiness, well-being, and holistic self-development among students and the academic community.

Rekhi Foundation for Happiness, a Non-Profit Trust established in 2016 in California, USA by Dr. Satinder Rekhi and Dr. Harpreet Rekhi, has spearheaded numerous initiatives globally, including the establishment of happiness centres and the delivery of the Science & Practice of Happiness course in over 50 colleges and universities across 6 countries. These endeavors aim to equip students with knowledge and practices for holistic self-development while promoting happiness science and positive psychology to the wider community.

At IGDTUW, we recognize the pivotal role of mental and emotional health in fostering a balanced and fulfilling life. Students wellbeing and happiness are paramount, not only for personal satisfaction but also for academic success. A positive mindset enhances cognitive function and learning abilities, leading to increased engagement and productivity in both academic and professional settings.

Currently, the centre offers courses on the Science and Practice of Happiness to all university students as part of GEC courses. More than 100 students enroll for the course every semester. The course aims to raise awareness about the importance of happiness, provide scientific insights into its study, impart happiness-enhancing practices, and equip students with skills to improve their quality of life and promote happiness in others. Objectives of the course are :

- To explore and discover the genesis of a happy and meaningful life
- To gain theoretical and practical knowledge pertaining to the field of happiness and well-being
- To learn about the cutting-edge research in the area of happiness and how it can be applied to their own lives

Counselling and Payment of Seat Acceptance Fee

Seat allotment will be done strictly on the basis of the merit of the candidate, priority/choice of the institution/university filled by the candidate and availability of seats in the respective category of the candidate as per rules. The allotment of seats, Documents Verification Schedule and Part admission fee payment schedule (Rs. 1,00,000) will be notified on CMAC website. If the candidate does not appear for documents verification, his/her seat will automatically get cancelled.

A candidate, who is allotted a seat in any round of counselling is required to pay the part admission fee of Rs. 1,00,000/- (Rs. One Lakh only) as per the payment mode instructed in the guidelines of counseling (The detailed guidelines will be issued in due course of time on CMAC-2025 website). Balance fees need to be paid by the candidate in the University at the time of academic registration.

All the candidates who get an allotment will have to pay part admission fee (Rs.1,00,000/– Rupees One Lakh) as per the admission schedule, failing which his/her allotted seat will stand automatically cancelled and the candidate will not be considered for subsequent rounds of seat allotment. However, such candidates are eligible for spot round of counselling.

Upgradation
After each round of counselling, the admitted candidates will be given chance to upgrade to the University as per the rank of the candidate, choice/priority of the candidate filled in application form and availability of seats in the respective category of the candidate as per rules. Candidates are advised to fill the choices carefully.

Spot round
Spot round may be conducted if seats remain vacant. Details of spot round will be notified on the website www.cmacadmissions.com.
NOTE: Fresh applications against vacant seats, if any, may be invited by following an alternative admission criterion in spot round of admissions by CMAC.
*Special spot round may be conducted by the respective University separately after the spot round depending upon the availability of vacant seats.

d). Reporting at final allotted university
All provisionally admitted candidates are required to visit the website of the university for physical verification of original documents/commencement of classes and payment of balance fee (if any). Admitted candidates need to pay the balance fee at the final allotted University AS PER FEE PAYMENT SCHEDULE of respective university, failing which, the admission of the candidate automatically stands cancelled ipso facto.
